Paying Interest

Your due date is at least 25 days after the close of each Billing Cycle. We will not charge any interest on Standard Purchases or Cash Advances if you pay your entire balance by the due date each month. We will begin charging interest on Promotional Purchases on the purchase date.

How We Calculate the Balance on Which the Interest is Computed

We calculate interest for each Billing Cycle using the Average Daily Balance (including new Purchases and Cash Advances) method. A separate daily balance is calculated for each balance type. These balance types include, for example, Standard Purchases, Cash Advances, and different Promotional Purchases. To get the Average Daily Balance, we take the starting balance each day for each balance type, add any new Purchases and adjustments posted that day, including billed interest and billed fees, and subtract any payments and credits (treating any net credit balance as zero). This gives us the daily balance. Then, we add up all the daily balances for the Billing Cycle and divide the total by the number of days in the Billing Cycle. The result is the Average Daily Balance for each balance type. The Average Daily Balance is referred to as "Balance Subject to Interest Rate" on your statement.

Amount to Avoid Standard and Deferred Interest on your next statement (see PAYMENT INFORMATION box on front page). This amount includes:

Standard Purchases and Cash Advances

Purchases without any promotional offer and Cash Advances.

Deferred Interest Purchases Expiring This Billing Cycle

Purchases made with 'No Payments + No Interest if paid in full' and 'No Interest if paid in full' promotions that are about to expire.

Easy Payments Purchases Monthly Plan Payments

Although unrelated to avoiding Standard and Deferred Interest, we include Monthly Plan Payments to help you avoid late fees. If you have a Financed Easy Payments Purchase balance, you will continue to be assessed interest on the Easy Payments Purchase balance until it is paid in full.

Billing Rights Summary

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at: PayPal Credit, P.O. Box 5018, Timonium, MD 21094 or call customer service at 1-866-528-3733. If your PayPal Credit Account is linked to a PayPal account, you can also communicate the error through the Resolution Center on PayPal.com.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and Account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing by mail, through the Resolution Center on www.paypal.com (if you have a PayPal account) or by calling customer service. You may email us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at: PayPal Credit, P.O. Box 5018, Timonium, MD 21094, or call customer service at 1-866-528-3733. If your PayPal Credit Account is linked to a PayPal account, you can also communicate through the Resolution Center on paypal.com.

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.
